How to Play Crazy Time — Rules, Payouts and RTP by Bet

> To play Crazy Time you put chips on the numbers 1, 2, 5 or 10 or on one of four bonus rounds while the betting light is green; the host spins a 54-segment wheel, the Top Slot boosts one spot, and the segment under the flapper decides who is paid. Every figure below was read off the How to play panel inside the game.

How one round works

1. Green light — bets open. A timer bar runs under the wheel; choose a chip value, then touch each spot you want covered.
2. Yellow light — betting is nearly over. Late chips still count until the light turns red.
3. Red light — the spin. The host spins the wheel and, at the same moment, the two-reel Top Slot above it picks one bet spot and one multiplier.
4. The flapper stops on a segment. A number pays straight away, multiplied if the Top Slot chose it.
5. A bonus segment opens its round. Everyone sees it, but only chips on that bonus can win in it.

At a glance

bet	segments	pays	example: ₹100 chip wins
1	21	1 to 1	₹200 back
2	13	2 to 1	₹300 back
5	7	5 to 1	₹600 back
10	4	10 to 1	₹1,100 back
Coin Flip	4	the coin's multiplier	multiplier × ₹100 + ₹100
Pachinko	2	where the puck lands	multiplier × ₹100 + ₹100
Cash Hunt	2	the multiplier you hit	multiplier × ₹100 + ₹100
Crazy Time	1	your flapper's segment	multiplier × ₹100 + ₹100

Questions people ask

Is there a Crazy Time strategy that beats the wheel? No. Each bet has its fixed RTP from the table above, and no order of bets raises it. Choosing between the 1 and the bonus rounds only changes how often you win and how big the wins are.

Which Crazy Time bet has the best odds? The 1: it covers 21 of 54 segments and carries the highest listed RTP, 96.08%.

What is the max win in Crazy Time? Bonus payouts go up to ₹50,000,000 in the rules, and the Crazy Time wheel stops doubling at 20,000x.

Where do I find the rules at the table? Tap the question mark at the top of the game: "How to play" holds the payouts, the RTP table and every bonus round.

What happens in one Crazy Time round? A shorter walk-through of the whole show sits on the Crazy Time game page. Each tap on a spot adds the chip's value up to the maximum for that bet; once you reach it, the table shows a message and takes no more on that spot.

How much does each Crazy Time bet pay? The bet that wins always comes back on top of the payout. Bonus payouts reach ₹50,000,000 (₹5 crore) in the rules' table, and one round's total win is held to the limit in the table's bet-limit rules.
